

Are you up for a Challenge?

Are you a bit creative? Have you some spare time to give to the SCN editorial team? You may be just the person who we need.

Sadly one of our long standing editors is retiring, Sally Barrington, who can still remember her early days on the newsletter team when it was done using tippex, glue and scissors!! So a big thank you for all the time Sally has devoted over the years and she will be really missed by all the SCN team.

Is this a role for you? Our editors are usually only responsible for 1 issue per year, there may be an odd time where you may be needed to cover another one but this is rare. We normally allow ourselves about 10 hours over a 10 day period as a guide of how much time you would need to be available for. You get a 'free hand' to be as creative as you like, such as sourcing artwork to add to a submitted piece of work or perhaps modifying an article to fit in on a particular page. The only other things you will really need to do this job is your enthusiasm and a computer with internet connection. We will provide anything else you need, such as making sure we give you as much support as we can.

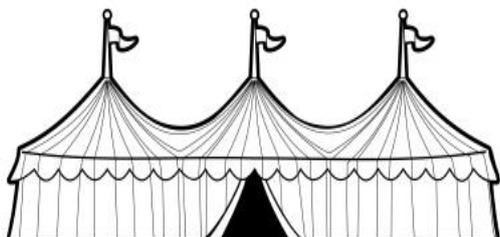

We are a great bunch so why not come and join us. We can promise you, it's fun and worthwhile.

If you are interested and/or you would like to have a chat to find out a bit more about what the job entails please give me a ring on 01278 671114 or email me at rowenat57@gmail.com or contact any of the other editors (their details can be found on Page 2)
