Relatives of Sidney James Short

The grave marker (a wooden cross) for Sidney James Short, who died 7th December 1907 age 23 years, has crumbled away leaving only the metal plaque. This plaque needs to be mounted on a marker. Are there any family members interested in reinstating his grave? If so, please contact the churchwarden. 671891

THE LAST BUS

This week saw the last public bus service in Spaxton, the end of an era. As it happened this last bus broke down near Hawkridge Reservoir, so the last bus was perhaps the previous one! This will inconvenience some people so please spare a thought for your neighbours who may need a lift into town and back. I believe the college bus still operates in the morning and evening during term time.
